During the signature of the agreements of Oslo, in 1993, the diplomats answered the questions about the modalites of its application by saying that ambiguities known as "constructive" which constituted the screen of it (statute of Jerusalem, return of the refugees, dismantling of the establishments) leveraient during the signature of the final agreement. Taking into account the relation particuliere that this area of the world maintains with ambiguity, that led straight has second Intifada.

To leave the mud pit, Friendly Ayalon, admiral of reserve israelien, former head of Shin Beth (service of information) and Nusseibeh Sari, representant of the PLO have Jerusalem, have redige a draft agreement which they wish to see signing by the two people. The political scale of the first two signatories confere has this project a resonance now and the already considerable one. By its clearness and its audacity, the Ayalon-Nusseibeh agreement could be the base la only base of a payment ulterior of the conflict in the respect of the two involved parts.

In the cycle of uninterrupted violences that the Middle East connait, of the signs heralding show that lassitude has the regard of fanaticism starts has to gain the people israelien and Palestinian: Amram Mitzna has ete elected candidate of the Labour Party on a light programs peace. But the tendency is still fragile. It is time that in France and Europe, the associative, intellectual and political forces express their solidarity with the actors of the ground who fight for a compromise solution realist.
